Description: Discusses how different animals prepare for winter, including birds flying south and bears hibernating....

Review: This is a pretty good book on how animals prepare for winter. Deals with fattening up, hibernating, migration, fur changes, etc. Each chapter is around 4 pages long with about 8-10 lines to read. Read only one chapter at a time for really small kids like 2 year olds and read read the full book at once for older kids like 6-7 year olds....
